Health Care Systems Comparison Chart

| Benefit | Single-Payer Medicare for All | Current Health Care System | Improved ACA | Public Option |
|--|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------|
| Covers everybody | Yes | No | No | Unknown |
| Eliminates deductibles, co-pays, and coinsurance | Yes | No | No | No |
| Allows person to choose any physician or hospital | Yes | No | No | No |
| Always have coverage | Yes | No | No | No |
| Financed through progressive taxes based on ability to pay | Yes | No | No | No |
| Increases disposable income for more than 90% of households | Yes | No | No | No |
| Lowers national health care costs | Yes | No | No | No |
| Ends financial stress paying for medical care and drugs | Yes | No | No | No |
| Ends having to change doctors because your insurance company changes its network | Yes | No | No | No |
| Ends having to change doctors because you change jobs | Yes | No | No | No |
| Ends surprise billings | Yes | No | No | No |
| Ends retrospective denials | Yes | No | No | No |
| Ends insurance company clerks making medical decisions | Yes | No | No | No |
| Ends insurance companies forcing changes in medications | Yes | No | No | No |
| Ends doctors wasting time with insurance companies to get necessary treatment | Yes | No | No | No |

Medicare for All, Health Care for All, Financial Ruin for None.

By Joe Sparks, Host and Producer of the podcast, Medicare for All Explained.